The base ball game yesterday between the Washingtons and Bostons was post-poned on account of rain. To-day, however, if the weather permits and the grounds are in proper condition, patrons of the national game will have an oppor-tunity of witnessing their favorite musement. Radbourne will pitch for the Bostons and it is probable Gilmore will do GAMES ELSEWHERE.

PHILADELFHIA, June 7.—The game to-day between Philadelphia and New York was of the sec-saw order. Dailey was in the box for the home team, but was knocked out in the third inning after eight hits and nearly as many runs had been made of him. Butingson was then brought in, and he was handled nearly as roughly before the third hand was retired. Beginning with the fourth inning, however. Buffington regained his grip, and the Giants failed to score after that. George pitched for the first four innings for New York, but after twelve runs had been made of him, he retired in favor of Thernan. The Philadelphia went to the front in the fifth inning, scoring three times on two singles, a base on balls, and a fumble. They made four runs in the eighth, when Umpire Connell put an end to the sgony by calling game on account of darkness. Score:

H. Butter and Rev. T. M. Ambler, after which the business session was proceeded with.

Dr. Addison was re-elected dean of the convocation and Revs. Henry Thomas and F. A. Steele were elected secretary and treasurer respectively. The dean then read his report, and affairs were shown to be in a very satisfactory condition. There was considerable discussion over a motion of Rev. Mr. Steeleto appoint a committee that would practically reorganize the methods of the convocation. It was finally withdrawn. Rev. Dr. Elliott reported that St. Luke's Church had not been transferred to the parish because certain legal forms had not been compiled with.

Dr. Crummell explained how this came to be, and promised that the matter would be attended to at once.

There was a little talk over the fact that the dean had paid convocation funds to the bishop instead of to the treasurer, but the rules were shown to be so indefinite that no one could understand them.

The withdrawal of the Rev. Charles D. Andrews, for several years secretary of the convocation, was the subject of resolutions of regret.

The editor of the Maryland Churchman addressed the meeting on behalf of the paper.

At 130 o'clock a recess was taken, and addressed the meeting on behalf of the paper.

At 1:30 o'clock a recess was taken, and lunch was served in the basement of the church by the ladies of the congregation.

Routine business of an important nature was transacted at the afternoon session, which opened at 2:30. In the evening, at 8 o'clock, there was a missionary meeting held in Trinity Church; but few people were present. The meeting was addressed by the Rev. Henry Thomas, of Poolesville; Rev. J. B. Perry, of St. Audrews; and the Rev. Mr. Hundley, of St. John's parish, Prince George and Charles counties, Md. The speakers made many interesting statements, and the service generally was of a ments, and the service generally was of a most valuable nature. At the close of the meeting the convocation finally adjourned.

"The Little Mountain Fairles. The Second Baptist Church was fairly well filled last night with a very attentive and enthusiastic audience. The performance which claimed their attention was that ance which claimed their attention was that of a three act drams, "The Little Mountain Fairles." It was well rendered in every respect, and called forth much applause Long waits between the acts were wiled away by ice cream and cake purveyed to the perspiring crowd at regular market rates. The play itself is an ingenious and meritorious work by Miss Louise A. Smitb. a teacher in the public schools. Miss Smith has the honor of being the lirst colored dramatist. She has produced several other very good compositions, the "Fairles" and the "Exodus" being, however, considered her heat. The "Fairles" will be repeated to-night.

The Old Guard. The regular monthly meeting of the Old Guard was held last night in their new quarters in G. A. R. Hall, Cornwell buildquarters in G. A. R. Hall, Cornwell building, Capt. Edgar presiding. The question of entering the militta, postponed from a former meeting, was decided adversely, the corps preferring to maintain an Independent organization. Important amendments to the constitution were considered and adopted, also considerable discussion indulged in relative to such changes in the uniform as would make it more distinctive. Further consideration was postponed until a future meeting. Theodore Gates, M. Mahaney, and W. Anderson were elected active members, and several new applications referred to the recruiting committee.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE AMERICAN MUSICIAN, May 28, 10 cents; E3 a year, New York: American Musician Publishing Company, 835 Broadway, Fublishers,

Several unusually important musica papers appear in this number, among them
"Wagner's Centennial March," "American National Airs," in which our own Sousa, of the Marine Band, is largely concerned, and "The Future of American Opera," News of music gathered from all quarters is given, and the musical instrument trade receives liberal attention.

CHEER. June. 10 cents; 81 a year. Phila-delphia: Cheer Company, 1917 Walnut street. Publishers. "A Case of Impoliteness," illustrated by the frontispiece, is, indeed, an excellent lesson, in a lively way, as to proper conduct—a great help to being what the world calls "well bred." Just the opposite of this term is represented by the picture, wherein a dog completely occupies with his head the dinner vessel, excluding several anxious and hungry-looking cocks and hirds.

"The Cat Club Papers" are delightful
They discuss most amusingly almost every thing, especially good eatables and drinkables. Among other articles of interest more over are "The Jest as a Matrimonial Ve-hicle" and "Job Lightheart's Letter on the Fair Sex."

Then arrive we at "The Kitchen," where it is sweet to linger surrounded by straw-berry preserves and jam, lee cream, cheese cake, croquettes, sherbet, and many dain-ties. CHILD CULTURE. May. 10 cents; $1 a year. New York: Fowler & Wells Company, 775 Broadway. Publishers. If any culture is so important as that of a child we are not acquainted with it, and if better help toward such culture exists than the periodical before us, of that also we "The Stranger" and "An Auntie's Notions About Children" will especially interest parents, who, with teachers added, will find ample subject for thought and action on the pages generally.

FREUND'S MUSIC AND DRAMA. May 25 10 cents: 84 a year. New York: 88 Fifth avenue. Publishers.

The first page is occupied by a portrait of Florimond Ronger Herve, the French composer of "Le Petit Faust," and other composer of "Le Petit Faust," and other comic operas. The face is as serious as that of any merry genius. How sad the whole tribe looks!

"High Salaries in England," "London Music and Drama," and "An Early Opera by Wagner" are among the chief articles, while all, editorial, news, &c., will prove highly desirable. "The Trade Talk," too, is extensive and important.

RECORD OF THE COMMEMORATION. Nov. 5 to 8, 1886, on the 250th auniversary of the founding of Harvard College, Cambridge, N. E.; John Wilson & Son. Publishers. A large volume, of 379 pages, with sevral views of the college, or university, buildings from different points, and a full account of the various days devoted to the commemoration. Many addresses by eminent graduates and others were delivered, and the genial and music-haunted, ageignoring Oliver Wendell Holmes read an admirable poem, retrospective of the university's glory and prospective of the eternity of its fame.

These very significant lines occur in it: I see gray teachers, on their work intent. WILLEM USSALINX, FOUNDER OF THE DUTCH AND SWEDISH WEST INDIA COMPANIES. By J. FRANKLIN JAMESON, Ph. D. J. Anna Hopkins University. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. 51. Publish-

This publication, being of the papers of the American Historical Association, vol-ume II, No. 3, records the life and usefuless of Willem Usselinx, the Lesseps of the seventeenth century. Great difficulty has attended the attainment of the facts upon which the story is founded, but evidently patience, resolve, have met and conquered all. The usual struggles of a man of genius who seeks solely, purely, and unselfishly to benefit his race are amply displayed.

ISOBEL'S BETWEEN TIMES. By Mrs. Na-THANIEL CONKLIN (Jennie M. Drinkwater), New York: Robert Carter & Brothers. Sale: William Ballantyne & 830, $1,50. An interesting story, in which the actor and actresses are human beings—not always the case with novels. We feel that we know them, or may any day. There is an element of religion pervading the volume.

HOME KNOWLEDGE, June. 29 cents; $2 a year. New York: Home Knowledge Association, 45 East 22d street. Publishers. Subjects important to the health and nappiness of home are well treated in this just begun magazine. Especially attractive just begun magazine. Especially attractive are "When are we Old?" which claims for us, as nature's right, a century at least of life. "Mesmerism" as medical application, "Good Manners;" an instructive and interesting paper by Jessie Benton Fremont, "Mr. Jenifer's Inheritance," which reads like a ghost story, but it isn't; "Fashions—Ladles," indescribable; the sensible "Story of a Beefsteak," and a beautiful poem about "The Sea Breeze and the Scarf," by that sweet singer of our land, Elia Wheeler Wicox.

A CAT AND THE SNAKES. Pussy Charms Them by Her Purr and They Fall Easy Victims.

[Lancaster Examiner.] The ruins of the old Weh barn, at the end of West Walnut street, which was not on fire by the Brimmer gang of fire bugs and burned down about five years ago, offers excellent harborage for snakes, and the place now is literally overrun with them. Mr. Kautz, who now lives on the place, has killed a number, some of them being black and copperheads. A cat belonging to Mr. Jacob Pontz, just across the road, has brought several into his yard and deposited them in froat of his door, when they were soon dispatched by Mr. Pontz. One snake, measuring over three feet, which was brought over by the cat, was found by a young son of Mr. Pontz, who took a stick to kill it, but on his approach the snake at once showed fight, and the boy concluded to call his father. Imme diately on his retiring the cat commenced to purr, and the snake thrust its head between the folds of the coll and seemed to enjoy the cat's purring. The slightest advance, however, of Mr. Pontz would arouse the snake and cause it to assume a heatile attitude. place, has killed a number, some of them hestile attitude.
The snake was finally killed, and since since been captured by it. The snakes make no effort whatever to escape from the cat, and Mr. Pontz says he can't understand how the cat manages to draw such big snakes across the road. It is remarkable that no one has been bitten, as the place is a general resort for the children in the neighborhood. A party of boys who crossed the place on Sunday found and killed four large snakes, all within a few feet of each other.

TO OPEN STINGY PURSES. The Clever Ruse of a Thoughtful Waiter and the Generous Tips It Produces.

A waiter in a fashionable down-town retaurant employs a clever ruse to extract unwilling tips from stingy pockets. His method is simple but original. After serving those at the tables under his charge with alacrity and good humor, he presents with alacrity and good numor, he presents each gentleman as he arises to leave with a small pink rose or bunch of violets for the lapel of his coat. These he supplies at his own expense. The cost is small, and there is scarcely any man so mean as to refuse tipping the courteous waiter after receiving it. Generous men will double the amount they first intended to bestow upon him, and those whose intention it was to slip out without giving him a groat, are constrained to delve in their pockets for at least 5 cents.

EMILI PLECIFIC CD. ATLANTA. GA.. U.S.A.

Col. W. J. Pollard.

AUGUSTA, G. J., Jan. 7, 1887.

Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.;

DEAR STES: For ten years my bloed was in a very bad condition, evincing its ill humors in a chronic swollen and violently red nose, and innumerable holds that frequently appeared innumerable holds that frequently appeared. a chronic swollen and violently red nose, and innumerable boils that frequently appeared on my face looked as if I had a severe case of ergipelss.

Some time ago I determined to try S. S. S., as I had heard so much of the Specific as a blood purifier. After using six large bottles of S. S. S. I was entirely cured. The violent deep red color left my nose, the boils disappeared permanently, and my general health was built up wonderfully. I regard S. S. S. no only as the best blood purifier, but also as the finest tonic for reduced constitution and general debility that I know of. Yours truly.

W. J. Pollard.

From Rev. Mr. Kelly.

Myself and wife were seriously afflicted with malarial poison, nervous prostration, and general debility. After using three large sized bottles of Swin Specific, we now consider our selves almost entirely free from any blood insurvities, and are as active and supple as we were twenty years ago. I take pleasure in recommending S. S. to all who are suffering from any impurities of the blood, disalness, or nervous headache.

Sanch Kelly, Elder Church of Christ, Muddy Fork, Howard County, Ark. Nashville, Oct. 7, 1886. From Rev. Mr. Kelly.

Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.;

GENTLIMEN: Over a year ago I was troubled with eccems on my hands. Hearing so much of the value of S. S. S. from my conferes on the road, I determined to take some of the Three small bottles completely cured me. Yours truly,

Chas. C. Baken.

OFFICE DAILY AND WEEKLY HERALD,
JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Jan. 15, 1887.

Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.:
GENTLEMEN: Up to two years ago I had had a severe case of seiatics rheumatism for three years. I tried the best physicians and medicine, but without getting any permanent relief. Finally I tried Swift Specific (S. S. S., and before I had finished a dozen bottles I was entirely well, and I have not felt a single pang of rheumatism from that day to this.

Yours respectfully.

JOHN T. GRAVES.

A Doctor's Conviction Dr. E. J. Halle, the well-known druggist and phylician, of Nashville, Howard County, Ark., writes: "Having some knowledge as to what. S. S. is composed of, I can safely recommend it as the great remedy for all skin diseases, it matters not what the name may be." AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

Chronic Catarrh of Twenty-Five Year Cured in a Very Short Time.

Chronic Catarrh of Twenty-Five Years

Cured in a Very Short Time.

One of the most disagreeable and obnoxious diseases is catarrh. Because the disease is local, many make the fatal mistake of trying to make a cure by local treatment. His an established fact that catarrh is a constitutional blood disease; and it cannot be cured except by thoroughly purifying the blood—eradicating the poison. That this can be done by Switt Specific is an established fact, proven by thousands of testimonials, such as the one below. Mr. C. C. Key is a son of Judge Rey, who was on the federal bench before the war. Mr. Key is one of the foremost citizens and armers of Alcorn County, Mississippi. He is such a man as is not easily misled, and who would on no account make a misstatement. Our readers are cordially invited to address Mr. Key, and secures personal letter as to his chronic case of catarrh, of twenty-dive years, being cured by S. S.

Conintin, Miss., February 16, 1887.

Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

GENTLEMEN: Ever since I came out of the war, up to two years ago, I had catarrh. At times the disease was very offensive. I tried all the doctors that I could see and nearly every cutarrh medicine that I saw advertised, but I got to permanent relief until two years ago, when I began taking S. S. I folt immediate benefit from the medicine, and after taking six bottles I felt like a new man. When I began using the medicine I was in avery bad condition: my digestion was poor, I had rhematic pains in my knees, and my feet were railways cold. These unpleasant conditions were remedied at once by switt Specific.

I cased using the medicine is that I thourbit was entirely cured. This past fall, however, I had a relapse—evidently I had stopped taking S. S. Iso soon. So I at once began with the medicine, and I am herpy to tell you that I am very much improved, my general health being excellent, and the catarrh rapidly dispersance of the catarrh and bood impurities, and recommend it to all my being excellent, and the casaria capacity appearing.

I have great faith in 8. 8. 8. for catarrh and blood impurities, and recommend it to all my neighbors who are sics.
